

$100,000 CLUB FOR PHYSICIANS OF WASHINGTON

A structure costing in excess of $100,000 will be erected in the near future by the District Medical Society, it was learned today.

"The building will be centrally located with ample parking facilities," said Dr. E. Y. Davidson, chairman of the executive committee. "The architectural design will be in accordance with the beautification plans now under way in Washington. One of the features will be an amphitheater with a seating capacity of 600. Construction will commence within a few weeks. The location and cost as yet have not been definitely decided upon. We have a number of sites under consideration, and will experience no difficulty in obtaining a satisfactory location in the downtown district. Already more than $100,000 has been subscribed to the building fund."

Members of the executive committee in charge of the work are: Dr. C. W. Davidson, chairman, committee on finance; Dr. J. S. Roy, chairman of the committee on location, and Dr. Frank Leach, chairman of the building and maintenance committee.

More than 200 members and guests were present at the centennial banquet of the District Medical Society at the Hotel Raleigh last night.

Surgeon General William C. Gorgas, U. S. A., in an after dinner speech stated that 20,000 physicians are now enrolled in the medical corps, in comparison with 700 at the beginning of the war.

Other speakers who responded to Dr. Joseph S. Wall, toastmaster, included Dr. John B. Nichols, Washington; Dr. Edward Martin, Philadelphia; Dr. Hoyt E. Dearholt, Milwaukee; Dr. John Champlin, Providence, R. I.; and Alexander Dockery, assistant postmaster, Washington.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The fickleness of woman has snatched happiness from Carmillo Manguso, and now he doesn't know what to do with the new furniture, the lease or his own, oh, so helpless, self, to say nothing of his fickle wife.

Many men have had to do with fickle sweethearts, but it remained for poor Manguso to be flitted as the wedding guests were congratulating him. Happy as the proverbial lark at 9:30 o'clock, Manguso began to worry at 9:35, and was distracted at 9:40 when it became all too obvious that his wife, like the lark, had flown. Before her marriage to Manguso in Yonkers she had been Marie Louise Deritta. Manguso, with friends, hurried to her maiden street address, but the bride was not to be found.

Then all sorts of rumors filled the air. It was reported that she had been kidnapped and some evil minded neighbor suggested an elopement. Not so, Mrs. Manguso had been hiding in a clothes press in her mother's home with a younger sister when Manguso reached the house. In the court of Yonkers she didn't hesitate to tell Manguso so. She also threw his rings at him and charged him with marrying her at the point of a knife. Manguso had summoned the girl's mother to court on a charge that she was "withholding his wife from him." The girl testified that she wasn't being withheld, but that Manguso, on the contrary, had forced her to marry him by threatening to stab her. Certainly she ran away from his old wedding!

The court held with the young bride that Manguso was mistaken—she isn't being withheld, so she returned home with her mother, as happy apparently as Manguso wasn't.

G. W. U. WILL HOLD BIG LOAN RALLY OCT. 24

Expect to Have Thousands of Dollars Subscribed At Meeting.

George Washington University is planning to do its bit toward making the second Liberty Loan of 1917 a success.

A big mass meeting in front of the arts and sciences department administration building, 2023 G street northwest, will be held on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 24, which President Wilson has designated as Liberty loan day. The mass meeting was suggested at a recent meeting of the student council, and was given official endorsement. William S. Hanes, Jr., retiring president of the council, was appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The mass meeting will be held on the G street campus at 4:45 o'clock on Liberty loan day. Doors of the university will be locked, and students attending the late afternoon classes will virtually be compelled to attend the meeting. Mr. Hanes probably will preside. Several brief addresses urging students to buy bonds will be made by students and faculty members. Subscription blanks then will be distributed among the crowd by pretty co-eds.

It is confidently expected that thousands of dollars will be subscribed.

Prince Reviews Fathers Fighting for France

The extent to which the men of France are called upon to be at least prepared to fight is illustrated by the above photograph. It shows Prince Arthur of Connaught reviewing the fathers of families at the recent investiture in the courtyard of the Invalides at Paris.

The soldiers on review are all forty-five years of age or more. The expression on the prince's face would indicate that he considers them well able to "do their bit" in case of need. On the visitor's right is General Dubail, the military governor of the French capital.

OLD METHODIST CHURCH NOW IS DANCING SCHOOL

The little frame building at Eighth and Sheridan streets northwest, where the people of Petworth once gathered and heard sermons denouncing dancing, is today the dance hall and headquarters of the Petworth Children's Dancing Club.

The use of the building, which was a Methodist church several years ago, and which is now public school property adjoining the Petworth School, for a children's dancing club, was approved by the Board of Education yesterday.

Of late, the one-time church has been used to accommodate the overflow pupils of the Petworth School. The request for the use of the old church was made by the Women's Club of Petworth.

Savings banks will be extended in the graded schools. Superintendent of Schools Ernest Thurston was authorized by the board to appoint a committee to work out plans for grade school banks on a large scale.

Georgetown University students will be allowed to drill with rifles of Western High School cadets and the new national guard will make use of the guns of Central High School.

SOLDIERS' SMOKE FUND IS BOOSTED BY RAILROAD MEN

More smokes for American soldiers in France were assured today when the conductors, dining car stewards and brakemen of the various railroads reporting to the ticket receiver at the Washington Terminal Station came forward with a financial boost for The Washington Times Tobacco Fund.

The railroad employees who look after the safety and welfare of thousands of travelers every month are united today in support of the fund which will be used to cheer the solitary hours of American troops "over there."

"We do not want this contribution attributed to any railroad," said a railroad official who brought the money to The Times office this morning. "The boys work on all the roads leading to Washington and they deserve the individual credit for the success of the little fund they started among themselves."

Within a short time packets of smokes for Uncle Sam's soldiers will be on the way to France, purchased by the money contributed to The Washington Times Tobacco Fund today. Every soldier who is fortunate enough to get a tobacco packet will find an addressed postal card within the packet on which to return his thanks to the sender.

Schools Send Dollar.
Clarence E. Schooley, superintendent of carriers at the City Postoffice, today sent in his regular pay-day contribution of a dollar to the fund. Mr. Schooley promised at the beginning of the smoke fund campaign to send in one dollar every pay day, and he has kept his word.

Two little girls who brought their contributions to The Times office today were barely able to see above the cashier's counter. They gave 50 cents each for the Washington Times Tobacco Fund, expressing the hope that the soldiers who receive tobacco from them get unalloyed pleasure out of real American smokes. They were Frances Rose Nachman, of 1739 Lamont street northwest, and Dora Tracy, of the same address.

Fund Now $3,796.55.

LA FOLLETTE WILL EXPLAIN STAND IN PUBLIC SPEECHES

Senator Robert M. La Follette is planning to take his case direct to the people. Having failed to secure a complete investigation of his alleged seditious utterances and activities from the Senate sub-committee, he is today arranging to go upon the stump and endeavor to secure popular vindication of his position.

He has invitations to make speeches in all the large cities and may avail himself of this opportunity to make his position clear to the people.

Prepare for Show Down.
Meanwhile both Senator La Follette and his accusers are making every preparation for a show-down when the investigating committee reconvenes on November 26. Although the committee's powers are limited, it is determined to go to every length within its authority to secure the facts about Senator La Follette's St. Paul speech, particularly those relating to the Louisiana case.

Senator La Follette, at the same time, is preparing to combat the investigation with all his energy and resources.

"MAKING AND BREAKING CAMP" RECORD BROKEN

PORT ROYAL, S. C., Oct. 18.—Although young men training to become "soldiers of the sea" are being rushed through their courses rapidly, they retain efficiency throughout, as is shown by the record for "making and breaking" camp, established by a company of marine "rookies" at this station today.

The routine calls for pitching equipment, digging entrenchments, mounting guard, cooking dinner, inspection, the gathering of equipment, and preparation for return. They accomplished the required task in fifty-one minutes. The previous record was held by a company of veterans now serving in Haiti. Their time was fifty-five and one-half minutes.

ENVOY URGES SWISS HERE TO SUPPORT U. S.

"Stand by America."
This is the sentiment sounded by the new Swiss minister to the United States, Jean Sulzer, in a speech at a reception and banquet at Raucher's last night.

Speaking before representatives of Swiss societies embracing the local colony of that republic, he made an earnest appeal to his countrymen here to stand in unity with the American Government on its principles of democracy.

M. Sulzer is the successor to Dr. Ritter, and was selected by the Swiss congress.

Benjamin Rickenacker made the address of welcome.

Those on the reception committee were Benjamin Rickenacker, Julius Kogler, John Florine, August Sandor, F. Glaser, Chas. Fuglister, Henry Sauter, Miss Mary Schmidt, and Miss Clara Brochen.

BODY OF U. S. SOLDIER UNCLAIMED BY FATHER

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Just what to do with the body of Christopher Evans, Jr., a soldier, which was shipped from Fort Sam Houston, Tex., has been a mystery to agents of the American Express Company at Kaighn avenue, Camden, since Saturday. A representative of the company called at police headquarters in Camden and said the body was shipped to Christopher Evans, Jr., at Camden, but it was impossible to locate the man.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a small bottle of Dandruffine at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching, and falling hair.—Advt.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play If Constipated

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative today gives a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile, and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advt.
